

Jonathan Pearce – Biography [November 2015]

Jonathan Pearce is the chief executive of the Lymphoma Association and has over 13 years' experience in similar roles. He joined the Lymphoma Association in December 2013 and is now leading the charity through an ambitious and exciting phase of growth and development, in which it aims to increase significantly its reach and impact. He is Chair of Cancer52 (a national alliance of charities representing rare and less common cancers) and also an Executive Board member of the Lymphoma Coalition (the global network of lymphoma patient groups).

Jonathan has a background in the voluntary sector, law, publishing and journalism.